

HELPFUL COMMERCIAL LEASING,
ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION TIPS

PRESENTED BY: HARVEY M. HABER, Q.C., L.S.M., C. ARB, C. MED.

Do Not Accept Proof of Insurance by Fax

A landlord should require that the tenant send the landlord the tenant's original insurance forms and endorsements, but if the landlord must accept copies of insurance certificates, the landlord should absolutely insist that the certificates be certified by the insurer and not accept photocopies as they could be in error.