

HELPFUL COMMERCIAL LEASING,
ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION TIPS

PRESENTED BY: HARVEY M. HABER, Q.C., L.S.M., C. ARB, C. MED.

Mediation/Arbitration/Litigation

In the event of a dispute, mediate first. If that doesn't work, arbitrate. And if that doesn't work, then litigate. Why? Because the cost of mediation is less than arbitration, and the cost of arbitration is a lot less than the cost of litigation.