

HELPFUL COMMERCIAL LEASING,
ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION TIPS

PRESENTED BY: HARVEY M. HABER, Q.C., L.S.M., C. ARB, C. MED.

When to Distrain?

A landlord can distrain (i.e. seize) a tenant's goods, chattels and inventory ("goods") for outstanding rent and only between sunrise and sunset.

Why?

Because it's based on the "common law", that arose historically rather than by statute.
